For Further Reflection and Discussion

Opener: What one smell provokes the strongest memories?

How did God speak to you or work in you at church this Sunday?

Who was the first person to tell you about Jesus?

- When and how did you believe in Jesus?

Read Acts 8:26-40. What similarities are there between the eunuch's experience in hearing the gospel and yours?

When was the last time you shared about Jesus with someone who hadn't yet believed? How did that go?

Look at the verbs in these verses. What does God do?

- What does Philip do?
- What does the eunuch do?

When it comes to sharing Jesus, how might it help us to know that God is already at work in the lives of the people around us?

Why do you think Philip started by asking the eunuch a question?

If we know that people need to hear about Jesus, why would we ever start with a question rather than just telling them what they need to hear?

What have you done (or would you do) when someone asks you a question about Jesus or the Bible that you don't have an answer to?

If you've been baptized, when and how did that happen for you?

- Why did you get baptized?
- How does the thought of baptizing someone you helped believe in Jesus strike you—exciting, scary, somewhere in between?

How can we pray for one another?
