For Further Reflection and Discussion

Opener: What is your favorite sport to play? To watch?

How did God speak to you or work in you at church this Sunday?

Read Acts 11:27-30. How did the Christians in Antioch know they should send money to the church in Jerusalem?

What do you think about this statement? "All believers can receive revelation from God for themselves or others."

When you have seen prophetic ministry done well, what has it looked like?

- What have the results been?

If you've had a less than positive experience with prophetic ministry, what happened (without naming names)?

Other than prophetic messages, what are other ways that God speaks to us?

What do you see in the response of the Antioch Christians that you would like to emulate?

Why do you think the Antioch church sent their gift with Barnabus and Saul?

- Why do you think they sent it to the elders of the church in Jerusalem?
- What about this example of handling money speaks to how a church should handle money today?

When was a time that God blessed you through another person (financially or otherwise)?

- When was a time that God prompted you to bless someone else (financially or otherwise)?

How can we pray for one another?
